

Results of the dog classes at the Western Afghan Hound Club's Championship Show on the 16th October 2016. Judge Barbara W Henry.

Thank you to the officers and committee for this appointment. I enjoyed the whole day. The excellent stewards and the sporting exhibitors.

V 1 1st Sukeshi Enter The Sandman at Shukriya. Pleasing in head and a well-placed eye, good reach of neck. Great depth of chest. Stands on correct large front feet and the long back ones on which he moved well.

MP 4 1st Pashtari Lord Tennyson Tokando and 2nd Pashtari Lord Byron were litter brothers and there was little to separate them at this young age. Both having good length of foreface, well set eyes. Well laidback in shoulder, g/fronts, depth of chest. Toplines level into correct pin bones and g/fallaways. Both moved with drive and held their topline on the move. the 1st was just more settled.

3rd Prisoner of Love.

P 1 1st Agha D'jari's Navajo at Harlextan (Imp). This youngster is very attractive and was 4th in MP. He moves very well and will do a lot of winning. Just very short in loin for me.

J 6 1st Gilari Redwood Earl at Zarankhan. s/m gold. Balanced in outline. G/layback of shoulder and correct balance of upper arm. Hindquarters of correct balance with forequarters giving him drive on the move, which was light and springy.

2nd Saxonmill Phoenix Rising. Br. Well balanced head with g/eye placement. Long arched neck, g/shoulders, level topline, fallaway correct finished with a ring tail. Moved well.

3rd Shimalma Rum Runner,

Y 2 (1) 1st, Cloudside Flash Thunder. C/br Balanced head with lovely beard. Balanced forequarters and hindquarters, Correct length of loin and tail set. Moved well.

N 3 1st Gilari Rosso Corsa. S/m gold. Pleasing in head with strong under jaw. Long neck and well balanced in shoulder. Very houndy and at a teenage stage.

When he comes into his own will be one to beat. Moved with drive on great feet.

2nd Gilari Red Diamond. Smaller cast litter brother. Excels in head. G/length of neck and excellent shoulder. level topline and correct fallaway. When he gets his confidence back could do very well.

3rd Khamis Aequitas at Eweyisska.

G 8 (2) 1st Way Up Imperio at Bichoux JW (Imp). Handsome with well-balanced head. Shoulder placement correct and flowed into a level topline and correct fallaway. Moved with a springy gait.

2nd Ayoubkhan Firethorn B/br . G/head and keen expression. Balanced in profile but sometimes he's high on the back end. Still he moved well and with drive.

3rd. Ashahni Chariots of Fire at Hindlefold.

PG 7 (1) 1st Devanmarn It's a Kind of Magic Saxonmill. B/c Excellent balanced head and correct almond eye. Arched neck. G/front and quarters. Stood on excellent feet, which he used to move with drive.

2nd Maringo Midnight in Moscow. B/c Balanced in profile and not disappointed when handled. His topline was held on the move and he was finished with a ring tail.

3rd Gezancol Strike a Light at Zadal JW.

ML 8 (2) 1st Garamond Loganberry Al Kabira JW ShCM & 2nd Garamond Cloudberry For Tokando . It was difficult separating these two litter brothers. They are two very promising youngsters. Handsomely headed, they both have correct layback of shoulder. G/fronts and rear angulation, correct hip bones, fallaways, tailsets just preferred the drive of the 1st but both moved well.

3rd Pahlevi Da-vinci at Lazakhan JW.

L 8 these were three litter brothers with not a lot to separate them. 1st Sarakhan Statesman.R/gold. Balanced impressive head with strong under jaw. Long neck, excellent shoulders, topline, depth of chest. Front and rear quarters correctly balanced on which he moved with the style of high order that the standard requires. Pleasure to award him the CC.

2nd Sarakhan Shamir JW ShCM. B/m gold. My RCC and there's so little difference between them. He's a beautiful houndy boy in profile and his movement left nothing to be desired. I did so wish there were more green cards.

3rd Sarakhan Sultan Al Kabira. JW ShCM.

O 7 (2) 1st Ch Shimalma Mercurial Magic. R/gold Handsome in head with a beautiful beard. Long neck and well laidback shoulders. Topline level and held on his excellent movement.

2nd Tulak the Sentinel At Tazieff JW ShCM. R/gold A balanced houndy dog, lovely in profile and a pleasure to handle from his head to the tip of his tail. He moved well on g/big feet.

3rd Andizhan Banjalucah to Suzaph JW.
